Sara Elizabeth Killian was a fun, loving and creative person who loved being a mom and for a short time, grandma. She had a warm smile and gave the best hugs. Her art lives on in her children, who each inherited her creative spirit and talent. Born in California, lived in Texas for a while and then moved to Oregon in 1986. Her work as an airline reservationist brought her to Federal Way in 1993.

That same year, her church's youth leader in Texas moved to Bremerton to be a Youth Pastor. Wanting to visit, she came over one Saturday in March 1994. There she met her future husband who was there working on his car.

Sara married David Killian in August and they spent the next twenty-nine years together raising 8 children, seeing their oldest son get married in 2023 and welcoming their first grandson in April 2024. In April 2022, Sara was diagnosed with stage 4 breast cancer and fought it for the next 2 ½ years. As of August 2024, the cancer was under control and shrunk down to almost nothing. But her liver was not doing well. She passed away on September 24, 2024 due to liver failure.

She is survived by her parents, Larry and Terry Waggoner of Coos Bay, Or., sister Rebecca Holien of Vancouver, Wa, sister Amy (Sean) of Portland, Or., her husband David, daughters Hannah, Mary, Joanna, Abigail and Julia. Son Samuel (Caitlynn), grandson Wyatt, and sons Peter and Daniel.
